City Express, Inc. announces receipt of Improper Bostonian's "Best Courier Service" Once Again!

Boston, MA- July, 2012- Once again, City Express, Inc. is proud to announce that it has been awarded "Boston's Best Courier Service" by The Improper Bostonian for the 8th time.

City Express attributes this award to the company's continuous focus on achieving an unwavering standard of excellence. President, Aaron Driben, recognizes that in today's economy a successful company must provide unsurpassed customer focused services at competitive rates. According to Driben, "As a leader in the courier industry City Express is committed to being the most responsive, the most innovative, and the most professional courier service in New England." In these turbulent economic times, Driben recognizes that employee dedication has been pivotal to City Express' success. "All members of the City Express team understand the mission and work together to exceed expectations."
